We envision a future of Zero waste intimate paper products.
Committing to minimize the impact of our shits to the world.

THE UNHYGIENIC REALITY OF PUBLIC RESTROOMS IN EUROPE

Students refrain from going to the washroom because the facilities are outright disgusting.

People avoid using public washrooms in high traffic areas (clubs, bars, restaurants)

Employees shun workplace washrooms

NIH states around one in two women and one in 20 men will get a UTI in their lifetime.

60%

Women refrain activities due to restroom cleanliness concerns.

20%

Increase in earnings for women in the future can result from better hygiene in secondary schools.

Out of the 80 Bn dollar hygiene industry, Europe will consume 20.85 Bn dollars worth of toilet paper.

Commoditization has taken away innovation from the niche.

Transforming hygiene habits requires innovative breakthrough in the industry

At Cleanshet, we've reimagined what a toilet seat cover can be. Crafted with the finest eco-friendly materials and engineered with anti-slip features, each flush unleashes a powerful cleaning agent, leaving behind nothing but a pristine, germ-free sanctuary for the next grateful user.

At Cleanshet, we don't just supply products; we forge partnerships in progress. Our hand dryer-styled dispensers are more than innovative hygiene solutions—they are a beacon of corporate social responsibility. By joining forces with Cleanshet, brands can elevate their public spaces while championing a safer, cleaner society. Each use of our dispenser not only maintains hygiene but also passes on a legacy of cleanliness, enabling users to contribute actively to communal health.

To ensure all organizations can join us, we offer Pre-paid and Postpaid models, making it easy to integrate this service regardless of existing cost structures. Together, we can create a ripple effect of positive change, ensuring every interaction is safe and every environment is pristine. Let's transform public health, one flush at a time.
